Established Central Hawkes Bay home decorating specialist - Guthrie Bowron

Guthrie Bowron is New Zealand's leading home decorating specialist. With over 50 stores nationwide franchisees enjoy solid franchise support and a comprehensive national marketing program.

This long-standing Central Hawkes Bay business has been operated by the current franchisee for over 2 decades and is well established in the community with few if any competitors. The customer catchment is immense and provides significant future development and opportunity.

There has been continuous investment in plant, equipment and the ambiance of the store itself. The results of the investment and efforts of the current franchisee are evident in the presentation of the business and business performance.

The current franchisees wish to retire which provides an opportunity to step into this very well established and positioned business with the support of a leading national brand.

In addition to this business being well established with limited competition, there is certainly continued opportunity to grow the business.

This a great opportunity for a sole operator or couple to join Guthrie Bowron - New Zealand's favourite home furnishing store, placing you in a strong position to take advantage and reap the rewards by acquiring this business.
