New Zealand's leading home decorating specialist - Guthrie Bowron

Guthrie Bowron is New Zealand's leading home decorating specialist. With over 50 stores nationwide franchisees enjoy solid franchise support and a comprehensive national marketing program.

This business presents exceptionally well and continues to rank highly amongst the leading Guthrie Bowron stores nationwide. The new owners will enjoy stepping into a well-run and supported business with room for future growth, a dedicated team and an exceptional Brand behind them.

With a population of approximately 50,000, Wanganui is a popular and thriving city. Wanganui has a real sense of culture, history and pride and the city has been experiencing high growth over the past few years in both business and lifestyle. With the majority of the Wanganui's population living in the central urban area at the mouth of the Whanganui River, Guthrie Bowron Wanganui is well positioned, accessible and renowned for over 25 years as the one stop home decorating specialist shop.

The current owners have been very successful during this time and have enjoyed growing and providing home decorating specialist advice to their Guthrie Bowron customer base for over 20 years, and are now at a time they are looking to retire and put their feet up.

There is a secure long term lease in place and with all the tools (including 2 branded vehicles), a strong customer base, dedicated Brand support, an exclusive territory, long standing and exclusive supplier relationships this is certainly a business to be proud of.

Full details can be provided upon completing a Confidentiality Agreement.
