

Anchor Franchise for Sale Bay Of Plenty

Fonterra Brands is proud to bring to market one on NZ's premium franchise opportunities. This Bay of Plenty territory is situated in the largest growth area in the New Zealand and an iconic summer holiday destination.

Are you looking to invest in a business with multiple revenue streams and a future-proof plan? Look no further. Our owners are retiring after 19 years, leaving a successful business with a loyal customer base and a proven track record. COVID-19 and recession-proof, with multiple revenue streams. You'll have a diverse and stable income. As Cruise ships and tourists return to Aotearoa, and the population grows, this territory is ready for expansion. Assistance is provided by the established Anchor brand with ongoing support and training provided by head office.

An extended handover and training period will create a seamless transition to the new owner. Multiple revenue streams can be added to this business to take it to the next level. This is a turnkey future-proofed investment with a significant market share. You're likely familiar with such iconic brands as Anchor, Mainland, Kapiti, Fresh n Fruity, Primo, Mammoth and De Winkle. Anchor Franchisees have been distributing these brands and more throughout New Zealand since 1993.
