UBX Ormiston - A Knockout Fitness Business in East Auckland

Own a managed, modern UBX studio in the heart of East Auckland's fastest-growing residential and commercial precinct. UBX is a unique training concept that blends boxing, functional strength, and conditioning in a 12-round circuit inspired by a professional boxing bout. Each 45-minute session combines skill-based boxing drills with high-intensity strength and cardio training — and with no fixed class times, members can start their workout whenever it suits them. Plus, with 24/7 access, members enjoy unmatched flexibility and convenience — a key point of difference from traditional group fitness models.

This turnkey business is delivering strong recurring revenue with minimal owner involvement. No further capital outlay is required, and as part of a global franchise co-founded by four-time world champion boxer Danny Green, the business is backed by world-class systems, branding, and ongoing support.

Business Highlights

- Consistent weekly revenue with a loyal and growing member base
- Secure lease in a prime Ormiston location with significant population growth
- 24/7 member access enhances convenience and retention
- Experienced coaching team and head coach in place
- Proven franchise model with strong operational support and brand equity
- High-quality fit-out and equipment in excellent condition
- Positioned to benefit from growing demand for flexible, strength-based training and community connection

Whether you're a fitness fanatic or a business-minded investor, UBX Ormiston is a fully systemised business ready for scale and success.
