From the moment you join, you'll receive extensive training, one-on-one coaching, and access to our central intranet of resources covering marketing, HR, design, and operations. Our national support office is dedicated to helping franchisees succeed.

Designer Empowerment:

If you're a talented kitchen designer ready to step up into ownership without the burden of running a manufacturing business, Kitchen Studio gives you the freedom to focus on creativity and client relationships while we handle the backend systems and supplier partnerships.

Entrepreneurial Opportunity:

This business also suits couples or business partners with strong sales, management, or customer service backgrounds. One partner may focus on client engagement, sales, and business growth, while the other oversees operations, project management, or design coordination. Together, you'll combine your complementary strengths to build a thriving, design-led retail business with the backing of a trusted national brand.

Community-Centric Flexibility:

Shape your business around your local community, offering personalised design solutions that reflect the lifestyles and tastes of your region.

What You'll Enjoy

1. Exclusive buying power with New Zealand's leading suppliers and manufacturers
2. Streamlined design and sales systems for smooth operations
3. An exceptional support network, national and regional gatherings and regular in-market visits you're fully supported from Day 1

Ready to Shape Your Future?

Take a step forward and join a brand that truly elevates homes. With professional training, cutting-edge systems, and territorial exclusivity available in highly sought-after regions, the opportunity is rich with potential.
