If you're presentable, a good communicator, and keen on success, then we find new clients for you to bring onboard.

We design and market quality but affordable granny flats and small dwellings from our base in Bulls. We have local Licensed Building Practitioner partners in a growing network around NZ. We need good people in those areas to meet with potential new clients and assess them, as well as checking out the site and what it is they are thinking. We find those clients with national marketing, and vet them prior to handing them over to you. Once you provide us with info from the visit, we have a process that takes things from there. You receive a payment from their deposit, and another from their completion payment. We train you fully, both online and in person.

Business Resources

We provide your own territory webpage in the national site, access to the company workflow portal, company shirts, constant supply of business cards, an online system for running your business, a system for local networking and time contribution to marketing, and a fun national network to be part of.
