Mobile Repair Opportunity | $176K+ in Profit

Step into a niche proven mobile service business with strong repeat trade relationships and low overheads.

Established in 1995, TrimFix Waikato is a mobile repair and restoration business specialising in leather, vinyl and plastic repairs across the Waikato region. Operating under the recognised TrimFix franchise brand, the business benefits from established systems, branded materials, and proven operating processes.

The business services a wide range of customers including car dealerships, leasing companies, auction houses, upholsterers, panel beaters, furniture companies, boat dealers, caravan and motorhome operators, as well as retail clients. Much of the work is repeat B2B business, creating ongoing revenue opportunities and reducing reliance on advertising.

Highlights:

- * Niche market and very busy
- * Low overhead mobile model
- * Strong repeat B2B clientele
- * Recognised franchise brand
- * Large Waikato territory included
- * No premises or lease obligations
- * Consistent profit over the last 3 years
- * Proven systems and support network
- * Opportunities to scale with staff or subcontractors
- * No specific experience required

TrimFix Waikato offers significant potential for growth. Opportunities exist to increase outreach to dealerships and leasing companies, expand insurance-related work, strengthen referral partnerships, and improve marketing within the territory. A new owner could also increase capacity by adding labour or subcontract support.
