Franchise for Sale Description

Freight and Logistics Business Opportunity for Sale
New Zealand Wide

PACK & SEND New Zealand started operating during the global financial crisis, they maneuvered their way through the Christchurch earthquakes unscathed and have been smashing Covid for six! After 3 monumental business disruptions PACK & SEND has demonstrated its strength, agility and resilience offering franchisees the full package when it comes to training, support and business success, regardless of the economic climate.

PACK & SEND has been experiencing ongoing record growth with sales up another 10% over the last quarter with customer numbers and online sales rocketing up 33% and 100% respectively against this time last year.

Deemed an Essential Service provider during the pandemic PACK & SEND was able to service both households and businesses in their local community during lockdown. If you're after a future proofed investment with a proven business model look no further than a PACK & SEND franchise.

PACK & SEND has New Zealand's largest range of freight and packaging services available under one roof. Your customers will receive unparalleled choice when they need to send something, somewhere. The inviting retail environment allows you to build a strong, long-lasting rapport with your customers and help find the right solution for their freight or packaging need. If you're interested in investing in a franchise that has award winning systems, outstanding training, ongoing support and a "No Limits" culture then get in touch with us now.
