Franchise for Sale Description

Sushi Restaurant Franchise for Sale Auckland

&Sushi produces simply the most beautiful looking sushi around and I am really excited to bring it to the market for the very first time.

It is a brand that has built a huge following over the years and has enjoyed massive praise in reviews and magazine articles alike. The brand was established back in 2015 and it has grown to 4 stores. Along with the stunning cabinet sushi, there is a simple menu.

Even at Level 2 the demand was back. This is a good business!

For sale under licence is the flagship Newmarket store where the brand was established. This is a wonderfully strong business and is being offered for sale under licence. This gives you the benefits of a franchise but with far lower fees! You will still receive great training and ongoing support where needed.

You do not need to know how to make sushi! You don't even need to know how to cook as the staff are very well trained and experts at what they do.

About the business:

- Strong location
- Extremely well-established
- Average sales of circa $24,000 per week
- Well controlled costs (very low Cost of Goods Sold percentage)
- Surplus around $250,000 per annum

Why you will buy this store:

- Flagship store of the brand
- Extremely well-established with solid systems
- Great training and support

- A superb team in place
- A 'high demand' product
- Genuine growth opportunities

This Newmarket location is just superb with high foot traffic and in a catchment area that includes many local businesses and office buildings and shoppers alike.

Whilst you do not need direct hospitality experience some is always helpful. More important is the ability to offer uncompromising levels of service and the ability to run a tight-knit team. The customer base is exceptionally diverse and you can come from any background to own one of these fabulous stores such is the global appeal of the product and of the brand.
